DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Anderson et al. (5,623,562).

As for claims 1 and 5, Anderson in a method of aligning opposing optical transmission paths in a mechanical optical switch discloses the following: a measurement unit for measuring an optical output signal from the optical component, power meter with computer and photodetectors (Fig. 9: 160, 166, 172); a first optical fiber which is connected to an input terminal of the optical component under test, the optical switch, and inputs the measurement optical signal, alignment signal, to the optical switch (Fig. 9: optical fiber connection between coupler 164 and switch 20; Fig. 3: 66); a second optical fiber which is connected to an output terminal of the optical switch and transfers to the measurement unit, an optical output signal, an alignment signal (Fig. 9: output fibers from switch 20 to photodetectors 172; Fig. 3: 67); a position controller, motor system, for adjusting relative positions between the first optical fiber, the second optical fiber and connection sections of the optical switch such that an optical signal becomes maximum (Fig. 10a: steps 102-208; col. 9, lines 5-20); wherein the optical switch has a plurality of output terminals, output ports (Fig. 9: plurality of channels from 20 to 172; Fig. 3: 67); a plurality of photodetectors (Fig. 9: 172) with measurement equipment (power meter and computer: Fig. 9: 160, 166) connected to the plurality of photodetectors; and plurality of output ports are connected to the photodetectors by way of secondary optical fibers (Fig. 9: output fibers from switch 20 to photodetectors 172); wherein the measurement unit is provided with a switch for connecting the plurality of photodetectors to the measurement equipment in a switchable manner (Fig. 9: 170); wherein the measurement unit further comprises a display device, a computer monitor, for displaying data (Fig. 9: 160).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed April 11, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. As for the argument that the optical switch 20 is not under test, the Anderson reference (U.S. 5,623,562) discloses testing the optical switch's transmission between its input and exit ports iteratively via method of Figs. 10a-10b (col. 14-lines 45-64). The optical switch is under test for alignment between the ports (col. 14, lines 23-40), and the optical transmission of the switch is tested iteratively until maximized (col. 14, lines 60-64).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2877

Fax/Telephone Numbers

1) Contain either a statement "DRAFT" or "PROPOSED AMENDMENT" on the fax cover sheet; and

2) Should be unsigned by the attorney or agent.

This will ensure that it will not be entered into the case and will be forwarded to the examiner as quickly as possible.

*Papers related to the application may be submitted to Group 2800 by Fax transmission. Papers should be faxed to Group 2800 via the PTO Fax machine located in Crystal Plaza 4.
